CALL TO WORSHIP

Bob Herb

Leader: God has planted us here—in this community, in this moment, in this season of life, with these people.

People: Here we will take root, and grow into something beautiful.

Leader: God calls us to build and to plant, to seek the peace and flourishing of the place we call home.

People: We will tend what is before us, so that it thrives on love.

Leader: Ready to bloom where we are planted and help God's beauty grow around us,

People: so we open our hearts to God's presence here and now.

OPENING SONG

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Jeremiah 29: 1, 4-7, read by Bob Herb

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.
