Leader: Jacob was weary, uncertain, and alone. He had no home, and no way to earn God's favor.

People: Yet God came to him with a promise of love, presence, and protection.

Leader: God said, "I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go."

People: Our hope rests not in what we accomplish, but in the faithfulness of God.

Leader: We do not gather because we have proven ourselves worthy.

People: We come because God's grace welcomes us, God's love sustains us, and God's mercy never fails.

Leader: Come, let us worship the God whose grace goes before us, whose presence surrounds us, and whose love can never be earned—only received.

People: Let us worship God with joy, confidence, and thanksgiving!

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Rev. Dr. Angela Wells-Bean

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Genesis 28: 10-19a read by Muriel Kehoe

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a stairway set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring, and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will bring you back to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!" And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven." So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first.
