Leader: We come before God as one body, yet each of us is wonderfully different.

People: We are many members, but we belong to one another.

Leader: God has given each of us gifts—gifts of teaching, serving, encouraging, leading, giving, showing mercy, and so much more.

People: We celebrate the gifts God has given us, and we offer them in service to one another, for the glory of God.

Leader: Come, let us worship the God who makes us different, yet calls us one.

People: We come with open hearts, ready to share our gifts, and receive the gifts of others, as we become the church God has called us to be.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

GIFT OF MUSIC

SCRIPTURE

Romans 12: 1-8, read by Sharon Kuznick

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, on the basis of God's mercy, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable act of worship. Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of the minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God--what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the encourager, in encouragement; the giver, in sincerity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.
